

Ardan - Your 5 star SIPP investment platform

A wealth platform is a vehicle that allows you to buy and sell various types of investments, including assets listed on the stock markets such as equities and government bonds. Wealth platforms are extremely useful to provide access to a variety of investment types, to help you increase the value of your investment. Using Ardan to administer the investment portfolio of your SIPP can provide a number advantages which you may not be aware of. Here, we will look at some of those advantages and how they could benefit your decision to invest your SIPP with our award winning, online investment platform.

CONSOLIDATION

A SIPP allows you to bring together all of your existing pensions into one scheme. Ardan is then the perfect vehicle for you or your investment adviser to create a cost-effective, flexible and efficient structure. By combining your separate pensions into a SIPP and investing with Ardan, you are reducing the number of separate investments that require constant supervision, review and oversight.

Using the Ardan Asset Transfer facility, you or your investment adviser can transfer investments from smaller, historic pensions to streamline your administration and reduce the burden of monitoring multiple pension pots from various providers.

Ardan does not charge for transferring existing assets into your new Ardan portfolio, although charges will apply for buying and selling assets. Details of which are available from the Ardan website.

COST EFFECTIVE DEALING AND CUSTODY

Whenever you want to buy or sell investments, a dealing charge will apply, which covers the cost of placing the deal with a stockbroker. With Ardan, the cost of buying or selling assets starts from GBP 5 per deal.

In some instances, other wealth platforms will also charge you an annual fee for holding your investments based on a percentage of the value of your investments. This is called a Custody charge. Ardan do not charge for custody of your investments which makes Ardan extremely cost-efficient.

Ardan do not charge for switching the currency of your portfolio.

ONLINE ACCESS

Monitoring your investment couldn't be easier, with secure, online access to your portfolio.

You can follow the performance of your investments, place deals, exchange currencies and request withdrawals all via our secure, online portal at the touch of a few buttons. It really is simple.
